- 4 Therefore it is our duty to thank, praise, glorify, exalt, honour, bless, extol, and adore him who performed all these miracles for us and for our forefathers. He brought us:-
from slavery to freedom,
from anguish to rejoicing,
from mourning to feasting,
from darkness to light,
from bondage to redemption.
Let us therefore sing a new song to him, hallelujah!

5 Blessed are you O Lord our God, King of the universe, who redeemed us and our forefathers and has kept us alive to eat Matzah and Maror tonight.

6 Blessed are you O Lord our God, King of the universe who in his goodness feeds the whole world. With grace, loving kindness and mercy he gives food to all flesh, for his mercy endures for ever. By his great goodness we have never been without food and never will be, because he does good to all and feeds the creatures he has created.

7 For you have redeemed us, freed us, fed us, delivered us, saved us and spared us. Therefore, our limbs which you have made, the spirit and soul which you have breathed into our nostrils, the tongues which you put into our mouths will thank, bless, praise, glorify, exalt, reverence, sanctify, and ascribe kingship to you, O Lord our King. For every mouth shall thank you, every tongue shall confess to you, every knee bow to you, and every being fall down before you.

8 Blessed are you Almighty God and King, great in praises, God of thanksgivings, Lord of wonders who enjoys our singing and our worship.
